

GENDER AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN LATVIA

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION:

Gender and Human Development in Latvia — A Necessary Intersection	6
---	---

PART I: Conceptualizing Gender in Latvia	7
---	----------

1.1 What is “Gender” and Why Does it Matter?	8
--	---

1.2 From Formal Equality to Practical Equality: Gender Relations, Roles and Stereotypes in Latvia	8
---	---

PART II: Human Development From a Gender Perspective:

Economics, Education, Health, Violence	10
---	-----------

2.1 Gender and Economics:

Money, Time and other Resources in the Formal Labour Market and Within the Home	10
---	----

2.1.1 Poverty	11
---------------------	----

2.1.2. Gender, Employment and The Labour Market	13
---	----

2.1.3. Home Economics: The Gendered Division of Household Work and Family Responsibilities	15
--	----

2.2 Gender and Education	17
--------------------------------	----

2.2.1 Structural Equality in the Education System	17
---	----

2.2.2 Promoting Gender Equality Within Education Programmes	18
---	----

2.3 Gender and Health	20
-----------------------------	----

2.3.2 Reproductive and Sexual Health	22
--	----

2.4 Gender-based Violence	25
---------------------------------	----

2.5 Prostitution and Trafficking in Women	26
---	----

PART III: Engendering Democracy, Governance and Participation	28
--	-----------

3.1 Gender (In)Equality Within National Decision-Making Processes	28
---	----

3.2 Institution Building and National Machinery for Gender Equality	30
---	----

3.3 Building Partnerships and Engendering Dialogue	33
--	----

3.3.1 Non-governmental Organizations	33
--	----

3.3.2. Data, Research and Information Collection and Dissemination	35
--	----

3.3.3. The Role of Media	36
--------------------------------	----

3.3.4 International Cooperation and Support	37
---	----

PART IV: Conclusions and Forward-Looking Strategies	39
--	-----------